City of Fairfield seeks applications for Youth Commission

Fairfield, California (Tuesday, October 20, 2015)—The City of Fairfield is accepting applications for its Youth Commission. Eight seats will be available for appointment in December 2015. Applicants must be residents of the city of Fairfield and between the ages of 12 and 21. The two-year terms end December 31, 2017. Mayor Harry Price will appoint the commission members with the approval of the City Council.

Members of the Youth Commission serve as an advisory body to the Fairfield City Council on community-wide issues or projects having the potential to directly or indirectly impact youth of the community. The Youth Commission interacts with the other City commissions as deemed necessary by project or issue.

The Youth Commission currently meets on the first Monday of the month at 7 p.m. Youth interested in being considered for the commission need to be able to fully commit to making a difference in our community.

Applications are available from the City Clerk's office at Fairfield City Hall, 1000 Webster Street, 4th floor. For applications by mail, please call (707) 428-7402. All positions are under an open recruitment. Subsequent applications for filled positions will remain on file for one year. The deadline to submit applications for the Youth Commission is Thursday, November 19, 2015.

Interested individuals may contact Heather Rae Sanderson at 707-249-1379 for more information.
